BIO: After extensive tours in the UK, Ireland, Germany, Holland, and multiple sea-to-sea Canadian tours, Ox has finally been back in the studio for the long awaited followup session to the Canadian college chart topping Dust Bowl Revival. Wilted, broken, skeletal. In the tradition of the Byrds, the Flying Burrito Brothers, the Velvet Underground, Frank Zappa - Ox is the incarnation of deconstructed pop & vintage indie from the fertile soils of the Canadian heartland. A reflection of middle America - where trash and beauty meet - a musical liquor store heist that will leave a distinct flavour of dust in your mouth. Studio weary fragments that will leave a distinct flavour of dust in your mouth. Studio weary fragments, fragile masterpieces, sonic accidents... 'lo-fi' at its best. www.oxmusic.ws
